

Relay Academic Preparatory

Bridging the Gaps to Student Success

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Relay Academic Preparatory is a therapeutic day school designed to support students who require a structured, supportive, and flexible educational environment. Relay Academic Preparatory is a state-regulated nonpublic special education program currently in the rate-setting stage and accepting district placement consultations.

STUDENT POPULATION

- 1 Students experiencing school refusal or chronic absenteeism
- 2 Students requiring social-emotional or behavioral support
- 3 Students not successful in traditional school settings
- 4 Students needing smaller, structured environments
- 5 Students at risk of more restrictive placements

SPECIAL EDUCATION CATEGORIES

Emotional Disability, Specific Learning Disability, Other Health Impairment, Speech/Language Impairment, and behavioral needs requiring structured support.

OUR APPROACH

- 1 Structured and supportive learning environment
- 2 Individualized instruction aligned to IEPs
- 3 Positive behavioral supports
- 4 Digital learning integration
- 5 Family and district collaboration
- 6 Flexible pathways for student engagement

Flexible Service Delivery Model:

In-office • Community-based • Structured Remote Learning

Supporting student engagement, attendance, and individualized access to instruction.

PROGRAM STATUS

Program location will be shared prior to our anticipated August/September 2026 opening. District tours will be coordinated at that time.

Now Accepting District Consultations & Referral Discussions

Dr. G. Diane Walters, Executive Director

gwb1704@gmail.com | 708-805-2151

www.relayacademicprep.org